Samuel Newton Nicholls, Fuel Company Executive
Funeral Services To Be Saturday Afternoon at 2

Samuel Newton Nicholls, 87, a partner in the Pierce Coal and Oil Company since 1920, died suddenly this morning at his home, 77 Elm Street.

Born September 27, 1871 in Caistor Centre, Ontario, Canada, he was superintendent of the horse and sheep department of Iowa State College, Ames Iowa before coming to Pittsfield shortly after the turn of the century to work on the Spoor Estate (Blythewood).

Mr. Nicholls was superintendent of the Salisbury Estate from the time it was being built until he became a partner with his wife, the former Clara Pierce, in the Pierce Coal Co. in 1920. He retired from active service in the company five years ago.

He was a member of the Morningside Baptist Church, the Mystic Lodge of Masons, and the local Aerie of Eagles.

Survivors include a son, G(eorge). Alton Nicholls, a sister, Mrs. Jennie Snyder, and two grandchildren, all of Pittsfield.

Friends may call at their convenience tonight after 7 at the Zoph Funeral Home. The family will be present at the funeral home tomorrow evening from 7 to 9. Services will be at the funeral home at 2 Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Stanley B. Thomson, pastor of the Morningside Baptist Church

In 1856 Taconic Lodge was built by William C. Allen of New York City. He died on December 24, 1873. His heirs kept the property until it was sold in 1882 to Henry C. Valentine

In 1882 Henry C. Valentine, a varnish manufacturing tycoon from New York, purchased the Taconic Farm Estate. It was situated on 385 acres on the lake, and included all of the south shore. In 1908 Mr. and Mrs. Warren Salisbury, owner of Kimball Piano & Organ Co. of Chicago, purchased the property.

In 1909 the Salisbury's demolished the Taconic Lodge aka Valentine Lodge and built a new mansion.

In April of 1911, Mr. And Mrs. Salisbury announced the new name of their estate, Tor Court, the "Tor", being an old English word which means a hill overlooking a lake. Tor Court has an Onota Lake frontage of 4200 feet, about 3/5 of a mile. At that time the estate included 10 acres of lawns. There were five greenhouses connected by tunnels, 15 head of cattle, 2,000 chickens, plum, apple, and pear orchards, formal gardens and a profusion of white lilacs. Adjoining it on the North is Burbank Park, a legacy to the town in 1882 from Abraham Burbank. Across the lake was Blythewood Farm.

Mrs. Salisbury died in 1945, and the mansion was never reopened, although the family kept it maintained in perfect condition.

In 1948 Hillcrest Hospital purchased the property.

Until 1971 the mansion was used for patient rooms. When the new addition was opened, the staunch old building became offices and administration building.

In 1981 a full scale clean up of the gazebo was organized.

In 1984 while workmen were grading and landscaping near the restored gazebo the ground gave way to reveal a chamber below and a galley running the whole length of the promenade.

Construction workers speculate that the subterranean chambers were actually foundations to prevent the gazebo from heaving from the frost.

The gazebo, situated on rolling lawns behind the stately house and overlooking the lake, was the scene of many turn of the century social events.

Helen Clark Nicholls 1924-2012 PITTSFIELD

Helen Clark Nicholls passed away peacefully at home on June 30, 2012, surrounded by family and friends. The daughter of Grace Markley Clark and Arthur Jay Clark, Mrs. Nicholls was born in Palm, Pennsylvania, on Jan. 31, 1924. She married G. Alton Nicholls of Pittsfield on August 4, 1946. They moved to Pittsfield in 1948 and enjoyed 43 years together until his death on Dec. 21, 1989.

Generation 5 (con't)

Mrs. Nicholls graduated from Pennsburg (PA) High School in 1941, and from the Allentown (PA) Business College in 1942. She was a 1945 graduate of the Academy of Vocal Arts, located in Philadelphia and New York City. Mrs. Nicholls received a coveted full scholarship to the Academy. Trained as an opera singer and stage performer, she studied drama with Dr. Herbert Graf of the Metropolitan Opera. Mrs. Nicholls was a member of the Junior League of Pittsfield, where she was active in Children's Theater. She was a member of the Pittsfield Town Players. Her final stage role was as a hilarious Buttercup in a church production of The Pirates of Penzance. A member of Zion's Lutheran Church,

Mrs. Nicholls served on many committees and the church council and volunteered in the church office. She sang in the church choir along with her husband Al. With the family business, Pierce Coal and Oil Company, Mrs. Nicholls served as treasurer from 1959 until the business was sold in 1968. She was employed as secretary-receptionist to the late Dr. Donald C. Exford from 1970-1976.

She belonged to the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Berkshire Motor Sports Club, and the Y's Menettes of the Pittsfield YMCA. She enjoyed singing, playing piano and listening to music, dancing, traveling, swimming, reading, laughing, and caring for her home and family.

Mrs. Nicholls was predeceased by her husband Al Nicholls; her sister Grace Clark Moyer and brother-in-law John Moyer; and countless beloved family members and friends. Mrs. Nicholls will be dearly missed by her son, Clark W. Nicholls of Lee, and daughter, Pamela Nicholls of Albany, Calif.; as well as son-in-law Robin Woodland, granddaughter Ella Rae Woodland, nieces Sally Johnson and Helen Rood, and a circle of dear friends and family. We cherish memories of Helen's sparkling wit and wonderful sense of humor, and her generosity and love.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT: The funeral will be held at WELLINGTON FUNERAL HOME, Reverend Dennis P. Kohl and Reverend Timothy Weisman officiating, Mon., July 16, 2012, at 11 a.m. Calling hours are omitted at the request of the deceased. If friends desire, gifts may be made in Helen's name to Zion's Lutheran Church Memorial Fund or HospiceCare in the Berkshires

O Love that will not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee,
I give thee back the life I owe, that in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

O Light that followest all my way, I yield my flick'ring torch to thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray, that in thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.

O Joy that seekest me through pain, I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

O Cross that liftest up my head, I dare not ask to fly from thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dear, and from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

Helen Clark Nicholls

Helen had a childhood surrounded by a huge family and extended circle of friends, in Pennsylvania

Generation 5 (con't)

Dutch country, Pennsburg Pennsylvania, outside Philadelphia. Her parents were Arthur Jay Clark and Grace Markley Clark, and she had one older sister, Grace.

Helen was a star from the first - as a gymnast, singer, actress, pianist, stage performer, and all-around high-spirited cutie pie.

Helen used her local fame to good advantage. She often laughed about the time she answered an essay question on a High School history test with a simple answer, like this: "They went to war, etc. etc. etc." She received full credit for her answer.

Helen's glory years reached their peak during the years in Philadelphia and NYC, when she was a student at the Academy of Vocal Arts, and afterwards when she pursued singing, acting and dancing. Helen received a full scholarship to the Academy, the one recipient chosen from among many competitors - big news back home in Pennsburg. At the Academy, she was trained as a mezzo-soprano opera singer.

Helen sang and performed on radio, with big bands, with the USO, in churches, and in stage performances.

Helen considered herself a city person, and always missed her two cities, New York and Philly. One favorite story involved pranks pulled by Helen and her best friend Sally Moore, who was also opera-trained. They'd board the same subway train via different doors, stand in different sections of the car, burst into harmonic song, then exit via different doors.

Helen met her match in Al Nicholls, whom she met through a mutual friend in Philadelphia. Helen and Al had a beautiful romance and 43 happy years together. Al loved her sense of humor, her talent and high spirits, and Helen loved his smile, laugh, intelligence, and inner strength. Just this year, Clark placed a wedding day photograph of Al looking adoringly at Helen on display in Helen's room. Helen reveled in this reminder that she had truly been loved in this life.

After a couple of years in Philadelphia, Helen and Al moved to Pittsfield for Al to run the family business, Pierce Coal and Oil Company. Helen was the very well-organized and skillful treasurer of the business.

During her first decade and more in Pittsfield, Helen kept active with the arts. She performed in the Junior League's Children's Theater (Pinnocchio and Rose White were two of her roles) and she was a member of the Town Players. She sang in numerous churches at Sunday services and for weddings and funerals. She continued playing piano.

Over time, Helen pulled back on her artistic creativity to focus on caregiving for her home and family, including her mother Grace Clark and her in-laws Clara and Sam Nicholls, and her two children, Clark and Pam. While she never expressed regret about choosing the roles of wife and mother rather than as performer, she very much missed those earlier years and wished she had been able to better balance her home and creative lives.

Helen and Al enjoyed church activities at Zion's together, including singing in the choir. Like Al, Helen served on many committees and on the church council. She also volunteered in the church office.

Helen's final stage role was as a hilarious Buttercup in the Pirates of Penzance, directed by Charlie Benz at Zion's in the early '70's. Her husband Al played the role of the tender Frederic. Pam was in the chorus, along with Sue Hohl and Sammy Slack, and many other friends were in the cast. It was pure joy.

Helen and Al were each wonderful dancers, a delight to watch on the dance floor. They enjoyed traveling to tropical climes, bringing Clark and Pam along for the fun in early years. Later, Helen and Al spent happy winter months in Florida.

Al's arteriosclerosis landed him in the hospital for surgery almost yearly during his last decade, and then cancer took him quickly and unexpectedly. Helen cared for him during those scary times. After Al passed away on December 21, 1989 - and was buried on his 67th birthday, December 23 - Helen's broken heart never fully recovered. She couldn't believe she had to live so long without her beloved, and often longed for the time when she would join him in heaven.

In addition to Al, the great majority of her friends and family members passed before her. Helen grieved her many losses -- and counted her many blessings.

Helen was a devoted and incredibly supportive wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, aunt, neighbor and friend.

(Perhaps acknowledge people at the funeral whom she cared for - Sue Hohl McMahon, Helen's "second daughter"; the Hathaways, next-door neighbors and churchmates with whom she shared many good times; Rona Hathaway Mitchell, who was Helen's god-daughter; niece Sally Johnson, a beloved friend; people from Zion's, her spiritual and social home for decades . . .)

Helen's son Clark loved and enjoyed his Mom. When Helen became widowed and later home-bound, Clark stepped up to the plate. He took his Mom out for meals, took care of her practical needs, and visited her often, made sure that she was never alone for too long. He ensured that Helen's home was cared for and bills paid, that she and her care team had plenty of food and supplies, that the air conditioner was installed and the emergency generator in place, and so much more. He was the hero in Helen's later life.

Helen and her daughter Pam grew to be incredibly close over the years, despite the many miles between their homes. For years they enjoyed daily phone calls between Massachusetts and California, in which they'd share life updates and revel in their mutual love and appreciation. They both looked forward to that call each morning. Too, Pam sent a daily email that awaited Helen each morning. Helen's love and generosity are at the center of Pam's life.

Helen and Clark enjoyed twice-yearly visits from Pam's family, including Helen's now 20 year-old granddaughter Ella Rae Woodland. Helen adored her "Snicklefritz" who owned Helen's heart. Helen was proud of Ella Rae's intelligence and grace, adored her humor and her loving heart, and marveled at the unbelievable fact that this September Ella Rae will turn 21. Where did the years go? A cherished blanket Ella Rae made for her Gramma covered Helen day and night. All caregivers and visitors knew how much comfort Helen took from that cozy blanket, and from her granddaughter's love.

Helen and her "son-in-love" Robin Woodland were great good friends for 29 years. They ran their own mutual admiration society. Helen always counseled Pam to count her blessings and cherish Robin, this wonderful husband, who was such a devoted father - and brother- and son-in-law, too. On Father's Day a few weeks ago, Helen was deeply appreciative that Robin supported Pam in being here in Pittsfield with her, rather than at home with him.

In her last years, Helen had a loving team of caregivers who enabled her to stay comfortably in her home when the time came that round-the-clock assistance was required. Helen and her caregivers built some very meaningful and joyous friendships. Helen retained her sparkling sense of humor, and enjoyed countless laugh sessions and heart-to-heart talks. She got a big kick out of her "campfire girls" sessions with her smoking friends, and enjoyed a little wine at the end of the day.

The team of Helen's Angels who held her during these past 2 1/2 years or so included: Linda Cranston, Ellen Hall, Amy Whitmire, Margaret Dodge and Sally Daley. Linda and Ellen were with Helen for more than 4 years.

Helen knew that she was as well cared for as a Queen, and "put a penny in her thank-you bank" each day in gratitude for her many blessings, as numerous as leaves on a tree.

Along the way, Helen also received great care from her friend Doctor Lobovits who visited her every Wednesday and shared many laughs, as well as a few drinks and song fests.

Generation 5 (con't)

Helen benefited from HospiceCare in the Berkshires' wonderful services, especially from the skills and insights of nurses Denise Talabach and Becky Booker.

Clark, Pam, Robin and Ella Rae have been sustained by the care of Helen's Angels and the Hospice team, as well, and are very grateful for these meaningful connections.

The years of care provided a lovely ending to a long, rich, complex life. The devotion brought to her by her caregivers and her family enabled Helen to rest and receive. Helen was very grateful, as are her family and friends.

What will we do without our Helen? Our lives have been enriched by sharing them with Helen. We will miss her terribly, and will cherish the countless gifts she shared with us.

Helen told us that she longed for Jesus to take her hand and lead her home. May Helen be reunited with the many beloved family members and friends who passed before her, and whom she missed so much. May Helen experience the happiness she always deserved. We wish her peace.

Notes for Ivan Ross Snyder:

Hi Clark. In 1955 I was 10 years old. Dad had his own oil company then, Snyder Oil Co. He housed his truck at Procopios gas station on West Housatonic St. and rented fuel oil storage at Earl Gogans also on West Housatonic across from Clapp Park. To my knowledge he never had a gas station. In 1936 when he married mom he had been working for Sam Nicholls delivering fuel oil. Sam didn't think oil would take off and continued at that time with coal and kerosene. By 1945 Alton was through school and the war was over. Dad started his own business because he knew Pierce coal and Oil Co. would be Alton's. Dad and mom became naturalized citizens sometime around then.

I don't know what Snyder had the Tyler St gas station. There were only 3 Snyder's in the phone book when I was growing up.

Your dad came here to drive and deliver oil previous to 1936 then? I have they were married 19 Sept 1936 in Aylmer, Elgin, Ontario, Canada.

Their marriage certificate says he was an Accountant in Smithville. Probably did the books in addition? (attachment)

Your mother, being a single woman, was a Spinster at 29, and a teacher.

My dad graduated HS in 1940 and came back to Pittsfield in 1947 after college. My folks were married in 1946.

Do you have info on Ross's brother Lorne? I have his birth and death dates and that he was a Bank of Canada officer in Montreal and died in a subway "accident". My parents said we think he was pushed. Was he married? Children? 27 Mar 1912 - 27 Jan 1971

I think I have your parents info, but not your date of birth.

I have you down as Barbara Alice Snyder, is that your preference?

I have a bunch of photos from the Sam and Clara Nicholls albums, perhaps some of your folks. I'll try to get organized so I can share them with you. I've scanned them.

As to the gas station, FYI:

1948:

" Ross (Florence M) Clerk Pierce Coal and Oil Co h126 Elizabeth

1951:

" Ross (Florence M) prop Snyder Oil Co and (Wahconah Tydol Service Station) h126 Elizabeth

Perhaps the gas station was for a brief time. Here's the 1955 listing, same in 1956:

" Oil Co Ross Snyder prop fuel oil 37 Elmview ter

" Roger J mach EDJ&SCo r16 Glenwood

" Ross (Florence M) prop Snyder Oil Co and (Wahconah Tydol Service Station) h37 Elmview ter

" Stanley G (Alexandria A) wvr WWC Co h929 North

" Stanley J USN r929 North

This also in 1956, Remember any Cornock?:

" Tydol Service (Theodore R Cornock and Ross Snyder) 168 Wahconah

1958:

" Flying A Service (Theodore R Cornock and Ross Snyder) 168 Wahconah

1960 Cornock worked at Berkshire Wollen and Frank Kudlate was the Flying A dealer
